New Business:

The board reviewed the proposed changes to the state noxious weed list. The public hearing was yesterday and there are four additional weeds being added to the list: Hanging Sedge, Rough Chervil, Wild Basil and Green Alkanet. All of which are found in western Washington. There were two changes being proposed including designation change for Common Tansy and update to Wild Carrot to allow garden carrot to not be considered noxious.

Kodie provided an update for the State Weed Conference including some discussion about some new chemical options that will be available on the market soon.

The status of the 2021 cost-share was reviewed. All projects that are outstanding need to be completed by the end of the year.

There will be a pesticide recertification course on November 22 at 9 am at Stonebraker McQuary Insurance office for 2 credits.

The last 2021 weed board meeting was scheduled for December 15 at 6 pm to be held at the Asotin County Conservation District office with a remote participation option available upon request.
